BILL'S BOOKS

The Enforcer: (November 2007 James Lorimer & Company, Publishers, Toronto. ISBN 1550289799)

In this hilarious sequel to Deflection, Jake Henry has achieved one of his dreams: to become the goalie for the Roofers of the Oshawa Lakeridge League. Then, bad news. The team coach moves away, and without a replacement, the Roofers might not finish the season. At first Jake is relieved when one of his three hockey-crazy grandfathers steps into the role. But can the team adapt to Grandpa P.J.'s old-school methods?

Road Rage: (Spring 2006 James Lorimer & Company, Publishers, Toronto. ISBN 1-55028-91698-09)

Canadian Children's Book Centre Our Choice.

Matt Thompson and his running friends approach the last weeks of the eighth grade with the realization that both in school and in running they are headed in different directions. They decide to run in an annual local road race. Matt ends up accused of a theft, and his new coach schedules him to act as a water boy on the course instead of running. That's when Matt learns what a real challenge is. A sequel to Mud Happens and Mud Run.

Mud Happens: (October 2005 James Lorimer & Company, Publishers, Toronto. ISBN 1-55028-898-9)

The student runners from S.T. Lovey Elementary School, first introduced in Mud Run, look for a continuation of running through the winter. This leads them to indoor track training, eccentric coaches, and stresses they had not imagined they would face in the eighth grade.

Deflection! October 2004 James Lorimer & Company, Publishers, Toronto. ISBN 1-55028-852-0

Canadian Children's Book Centre Our Choice.

Jacob Henry loves to play hockey, but he has three problems — his grandfathers, each of whom thinks he possesses more hockey knowledge than the coach. One still plays in six leagues; another went to high school with one of the game's stars; and the third tries to apply his musical skills to every problem.

Corner Kick May 2004 James Lorimer & Company, Publishers, Toronto 1-55028-816

Canadian Children's Book Centre Our Choice.

Michael is not accepted at his school until the "in" group discovers his skill at soccer. As the school soccer team closes in on the city championship, another newcomer to the school threatens Michael's new popularity. Now he must decide what is important to him.

Off Track! 2003 James Lorimer & Company, Publishers, Toronto. ISBN 1-55028-806-7

Tyler has to spend a summer doing remedial English, where he discovers the sport of Triathlons. But in order to race, he keeps secrets from his father. Major problems result, until his swimming coach helps Matt and his father focus – and compromise – on what each believes to be important.

Mud Run: 2003 James Lorimer & Company, Publishers, Toronto. ISBN 1-55028-786-9

Manitoba Young Readers Choice Award nominee 2005.

Matt efforts to fit in at a new school dig him deeper and deeper into trouble. Even joining the Cross-Country team doesn't help – until his discovery that even in an individual sport, teamwork is important.

Fast Finish: 1998 James Lorimer & Company, Publishers, Toronto. ISBN 1-55028-640-4

Noah, 13, is the fastest runner in his school. But when he joins a track club he learns that sometimes what you like is not always what you are best at; and that you can't win by running away from what you don't want to face.
